Earl Thomas Joseph Baker

1977

Look to this day
for it is life
the very life of life.

The outside world is dark and mysterious. It is full of unexplored challenges and opportunities that will shape our future.

But there is a world we are familar with and have shaped ourselves – a world of growth, truth, action, and power; a world composed of memories of the past and hopes for the future. We would like to share this world with you.

The Class of 1977 invites you to explore the world of

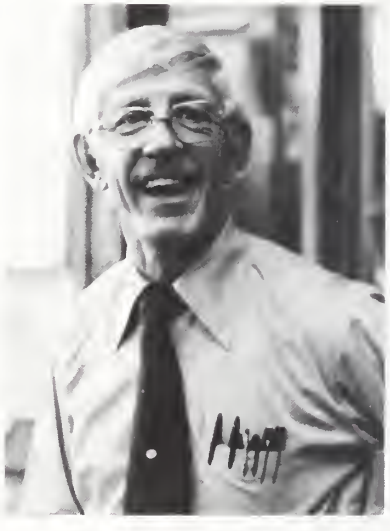
DEDICATION

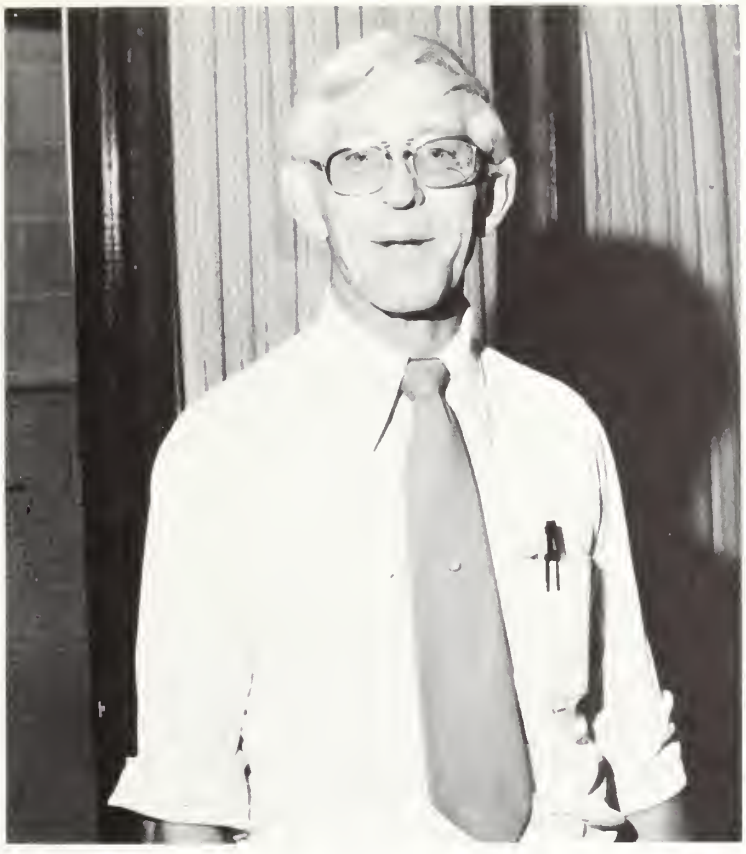
DEDICATED TO



MR. RICHARD T. STROZINA

We, the Class of 1977, dedicate our yearbook to a man who dedicated himself to us. Two years ago, he agreed to be our class advisor and accepted a challenge everyone else refused. He generously gave his time and energy to motivate and guide our class. It was his spirit of enthusiasm and involvement that made these past two years at Westborough High School successful and memorable for all of us.

Thank you Mr. Stro!



What you are today is the result of the life you've lived up to this moment. What you will be tomorrow depends upon the quality of your life from now on.

None of us is a finished product. We are each in the continual process of creating ourselves anew.

Wilfred A. Peterson

FACULTY

TION ADMINISTRATION ADMINISTRATI

"Today's Saturday?"

What's the answer to number 2?

Hmmm . . .

This meeting will now come to order.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE – Mrs. Smith, Mr. Lowe, Mr. Becker, Dr. Malone, Mr. Farrow, 2nd Row: Dr. Kelleher, Mr. Willard, Miss McPartland, Mr. Thurston.

To the Graduating Class;

As the 1977 Yearbook appears, we realize that another year has all too quickly taken its place in Time. Time, after all, is only a definite period of duration. Today we pause and reflect that a four year duration has measured the progress of the alumni of this school. Feelings are mixed – sad as we realize that high school days are practically at an end, yet joyous, for Graduation is at hand.

When we first met, you were told that you would get out of high school what you put into it. Many of you have given much to your school – and you are taking much with you. Those who are less fortunate still have the opportunity to give much to and to take much from the endeavors with which you will be involved during your life after Graduation. As with the case of Time, Life, too, is a definite period of duration. As we congratulate you on behalf of the entire faculty and staff on achieving your diploma, we sincerely pray that Life will be good. That will mean that you have aimed high, achieved success, and given much.

Principal

Dr. Edward E. Kelleher
Superintendent of Schools

The principal goal of education is to create men who are capable of doing new things, not simply of repeating what other generations have done.

JOSÉ OF PARAGUAY

This year I have been living with the Ashton family. I was lucky to meet many people in this nice town. It has been a great experience, thanks to the AFS organization of Westboro.

I have made many friends. It has been a good opportunity to learn the customs and culture of this area, to participate in the family life, and to be a student of Westboro High school.

Everyone has shown me the spirit of friendship, and helped me in many ways to make my stay here a happy one. My thanks to everyone who helped me to make this year an unforgetable year for me.

Free enterprise at work here.

This independent businessman makes his own deliveries, handles collections (complaints, too), keeps the books—and the profits. It's only a part-time job but this newsboy still earns more than half the people in the world. He's part of the free enterprise system that made this the wealthiest country on earth. For him, it's just the beginning. But, think how far he can go! Free enterprise. It's a great system.
